No one books a retreat with the intention of cancelling it, but unexpected events do occur, so please consider purchasing travel insurance. It is your responsibility to read and understand our cancellation policies. Exceptions cannot be made for any reason, including weather, injury/illness, or personal emergencies. No refunds or credits for failing to attend or complete the retreat, arriving late, or leaving early. We recommend that you purchase your own travel insurance. We encourage you to purchase trip cancellation insurance to cover your trip fees should you or your family have a medical problem before or while on the trip. Trip insurance should also be purchased to cover medical expenses if you have an accident while on the retreat. Most travel insurance must be purchased within 14 days of making your reservation. We reserve the right to cancel retreats with inadequate participant interest, in which case all money paid to Full Life Yoga & Wellness will be refunded. Notification of cancellation, for this reason, will occur at least one month before the retreat start date. Full Life Yoga & Wellness cannot be held responsible for personal expenses, such as airline tickets, due to itinerary changes or retreat cancellations.

COVID TRAVEL UPDATE

Please note that if the retreat has to be postponed based on border closures, then a credit for a guest's hold deposit will be issued to be used for the postponement date. If the retreat happens as scheduled, but a guest decides not to attend based on any other reason than a country's border closure, then the regular cancellation policy (stated above) will be maintained.

If travel worldwide is disrupted as the retreat nears, the final balance due date will be postponed until a final decision is made at the 1-month mark before the start date.

All attendees will agree to adhere to any covid regulations in place of the location where the retreat is held. All mandatory travel requirements such as vaccinations, boosters, and tests will be followed as required by law and while on retreat, guests agree to any local regulations in place, such as masks, vaccine passports and the like.

I agree to the foregoing.
